Annual Meeting Feb. 16

Variety Keynote Of Sons Of Norway Year; A Review Of Social Events For 1964

February was Leap Year and Valentine Basket Party. Decorative baskets were prepared by the gentlemen and auctioned by Joe Lineham, dressed as a lady, to the highest lady bidder.

March was Norwegian Whist Night with imported Norwegian prizes; a delicious Smorgasbord was served.

April saw a Cash Bingo Night convened by Brother and Sister Ness.

In May came Hawaiian Night — something different, with decorations, dress, food and entertainment in an Hawaiian theme to make a very colorful and enjoyable evening. This was convened by the Sorensons and the Svidals.

The 17th of May saw a new record with capacity attendance and a sumptuous Smorgasbord, appropriate entertainment, music and dancing, all combined in friendly harmony for an evening long to be remembered.

On October 10th Lief Erickson Night was held in the Nordic Room featuring dancing to the music of Olav Sveen and his accordion and an interesting history of Lief Erickson by S. A. Sorenson. A variety lunch was served by the Ladies'

Auxiliary and it was an all-round enjoyable evening for everyone.

November 21st saw our Annual Lutfisk Supper. The Masonic Temple was filled to capacity for this outstanding event. After partaking of a traditional Lutfisk supper served banquet style, guests were escorted to the main auditorium for the hilarious production, "Klondyke Days", where they were entertained with song, music comedy, can-can dancing, etc. Dancing until midnight concluded the evening.

The last meeting of 1964 was held on December 6th in the Nordic Room of the Scandinavian Centre, with the election of officers for 1965. Highlight of the evening was a film "Viking Heritage" sent out by the Supreme Lodge. A large crowd was present to enjoy the show and a lovely Christmas lunch was served.

I want to thank the Lodge very kindly for the silver tray presented to me on my retirement as Social Director, by Peter Sather, Past President. Thank you, everyone, for your help and co-operation in making 1964 a very successful year.

— Mrs. Mina McDonald

Memorial To Finnish Immigrants

The Suomi Seura Ry in Finland is planning to erect a memorial in memory of all the immigrants who have left their homeland and have established themselves in other countries. Hanko has been chosen as the town where the memorial will be erected as it was from Hanko where the majority of the immigrants left. The Suomi Seura Ry is asking for monetary contributions to cover the cost of the memorial, and will be carried out throughout all countries. The town of Hanko has promised to donate the area and also has promised to keep the area in good condition once the memorial has been erected. Please note that President Urho Kekkonen is the Patron of the contributions.

Suomi Seura Ry is also collecting biographical data from among the immigrants. It is hoped that those living outside of Edmonton will also in some way take part in either of the above. Please write to Mr. P. Lehtonen, 317 Bay Street, Port Arthur, Ontario or Mr. Virtanen, 11511 - 92 Street, Edmonton, for further details.

Sunray Lodge Elects Officers

On January 13th, in the Nordic the first meeting of Sunray Lodge Room of the Scandinavian Centre, Jr. Sons of Norway met to elect and install officers. The following are the officers for 1965:

President Doug McInnis
Vice-President Danny Lineham
Secretary Sharon Sorenson
As. Secretary Inez Hovde
Counsellor Carol Hill
Social Director Donna Bukvi
Treasurer Dennis Bukvi
Fin. Secretary John McInnis
Marshal Sandra Oyen
As. Marshal Evelyn Johnson
Inner Guard Blayne Read
Outer Guard Bryan Read

Newly installed president of Sons of Norway Edmonton Lodge, Solglyt 143, Ellsworth Halberg was installing officer. In his remarks he pointed out that the active co-operation of all members and officers would make the organization grow and provide more satisfaction to members the more effort they put forth. He pointed out with interest that Danny Lineham is vice-president of the Junior Lodge and that his father, Mr. Joe Lineham, is vice-president of Solglyt Lodge.

Following the meeting everyone joined in a pleasant game of "It's Your Move" under the direction of Mr. Joe Lineham by Mr. K. Amdam. Mrs. Clara Lineham and Mrs. Mazie Amdam served an enjoyable lunch.

The next meeting of the Lodge will be February 10th in the Nordic Room.

What About Our Future?

Canadians in general have been very uneasy during the past decade. They have been complaining far too much about the failures, derelictions, and shortcomings of others. This has created a degenerative action on their own lives. To carp and complain is destruction of one's own spirit and also of other's spirits. When our spirits are down, our activities and interests decline. But the rugged natural enthusiasm and spirit of those of Viking blood will never be snuffed out.

To encourage and promote a happy countenance for our fellow man is a moral obligation of us all. During this decade of despair (that now must surely fade away) the Scandinavians of the North Central region of Alberta have set aside some of their capital assets to build and furnish our new Scandinavian Centre building.

During the next decade we are going to build in a different fashion. Yes, we will naturally encourage continued capital share selling. However, the emphasis will be on maximizing these social activities that put spirit in the heart and a smile on the face of both ourselves and our children.

In each of us there is some desire to do good for our fellow man. But also for each of us there is a need to experience and understand Mother Nature. The well oriented Canadian sees a need to keep a balance between THE LEVEL OF EXPERIENCE NECESSARY TO AID OUR CONTINUING COMPREHENSION OF THE CHANGING WORLD AROUND US; THE LEVEL OF ACTIVITY DEVOTED TO DOING GOOD FOR OTHERS.

The Scandinavian Centre Co-operative Association is not a service organization dedicated to doing good for others. It is a social grouping devoted to activities that generate understanding of our fellow human and the world around us. We should try to stay in the same category of high level objectives established by organizations such as the Boy Scouts. They continuously encourage the boys to do a good turn for another; however, their practical activities are oriented around the boys' needs to experience activities that will help each boy to understand Mother Nature (which includes the boy himself).

What future activities do you feel should receive attention by your Association? Who among us will volunteer to help create activities which will increase our individual and social perspective? What about increasing activities such as chartered flights, which also help our members' pocket books?

These words are written to urge you to think and to attend the forthcoming annual shareholders' meeting to be held February 16th at 8:00 p.m. at the Scandinavian Centre. Get active, be constructive, and come out and participate in some very worthwhile activities that emphasize excellence.

DANIA'S NYTAARFEST

Fredag den 15 Januar holdt DANIA sin aarlige Nytaarsfest og denne gang i vore dejlige "Scandinavian Centre." Fra Bestyrelsens og Centret side ver der gjort et stort og paaskonnet arbejde for at gore det hele saa festligt som muligt og et meget stort antal mennesker i deres paeneste toj modte op og alle havde en fin aften med god Dans og dejligt smorrebord og hojt humor i de dejlige omgivelser.

Hvor er det saa synd for alle, ikke mindst for arrangorerne, at man skal gaa hjem med en kedelig smag i munden, blot fordi nogle faa ikke kender begrebet velanstændighed og tager sig selv til rette i kraft af store muskler og en sloret hjerne.

At de det gaar ud over uden tvivl opfordrede til det, berettiger ikke selvtaegt Gaa et andet sted hen at tilbring jeres aftener, I der kun kommer for at ove klammeri og gore andre kede af det og de der ikke kan beherske sig, naar de foler sig saaret, bliv hjemme i fred og ro og kom ikke og odelæg Klubbens og Centrets gode navn og rygte og aftenen for os allesammen.

Netop den aften, modte mange der ikke havde vaeret i Klubben for laengers tid og paa grund af nogle faa Gadedrenge, maaske agtede at udsætte naeste besog paa ubestemt tid.

Lad os ikke blive slaaet ud af det skete; men komme igen, naar Klubben kalder og give bestyrelsen vor velsignelse til at ekskludere visse Balgaester efter eget skon.

Sunray Plans Basket Party

The Board of Directors of Sunray Jr. Lodge met recently and planned a Basket Social with a Valentine Theme for February 10th in the Nordic Room at 7:30 p.m. In charge will be Donna Bukvi assisted by other members of the Board.

In its meeting the Board discussed plans for their functions on March 10th, April 14th and May 12th.

The Board also decided that any officer who missed 3 consecutive meetings would be replaced.

At the February meeting new members will be initiated, and to the social each member may invite one friend.

Sons of Norway Install E. Halberg President

With Christmas and New Year's parties over and the tinsel once more put away it means back to more serious business once again. Sons of Norway officers for 1965 were installed by the Fourth District Vice-President, Knut Svidal on January 8, in the Nordic Room. Ellsworth Halberg has taken over the President's chair, following in his father's footsteps, who was President some years ago. During the social, a colored film of the World's Fair was shown and samples of wine were enjoyed. Lois Halberg was hostess for the much appreciated hot potluck lunch as the weather was so cold. Mrs. Mina MacDonald was pleasantly surprised when presented with an engraved silver tray in appreciation of her untiring efforts as Social Director. The past year was only one of many years in which her time and talents was spent in promoting the Lodge.

Scandinavian Teen Dances Success

A very successful and enjoyable teen dance was held January 16th from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Nordic Room of the Scandinavian Centre. Music was provided by the Reptiles — an excellent teen band. The largest attendance to date was recorded.

The Teen Committee of Per Jorgenson, John Luhtala, Ritva Salomaa, Hilkka Nikkanen, Arlene Amdam, Bonnie Loughlin, assisted by Mrs. Kalmer Amdam, Paul B. Larsen and Knut Svidal have arranged for two dances in February ... February 13th and 27th.

If you are a teenager, or have teenagers in your family, plan, or have them plan, to attend on February 13th or 27th. The charge is 50c for 2 hours of pleasant, modern dancing in Edmonton's finest Community Club. Act now before it's too late.

...EDITORIAL...

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

By S. A. Sorenson

MONEY! MONEY! MONEY!

Many questions are being asked about money these days. For most people and many businesses December 31st was the close of another fiscal year. So it was for the Scandinavian Centre. Did the centre make any money during the first six months of operations? What is the debt of the Centre? What is the operating profit or loss of the Scandinavian News? Was there a surplus from the operation of the three flights during 1964? What was the profit from the operation of the Exhibition Booth? How much profit was realized from the various functions held during 1964? How much did the Centre realize from the sale of shares? How much money is there still outstanding on shares? These and many more questions will be answered in the auditor's statement as seen elsewhere in this paper. May I suggest that you study it carefully and come to the ANNUAL MEETING on February 16th prepared to ask questions and make recommendations for the successful operation of the Centre in 1965.

ARE THE FIVE CLUBS FORGETTING?

Eleven years ago the five Scandinavian ethnic groups formed a co-operative . . . the Scandinavian Centre . . . to build a home for themselves. It is now accomplished fact! But why then do we see an ad in our very own paper in the January issue which says: "Finnish Society Dance and Program at the Cromdale Hall."

In checking with Tom Nielsen the manager, he informs me that the Finnish Society has never asked to book any area in the Centre. Why? I do think an explanation is in order.

Let there be no mistake about it, the Board of Directors wants all groups to enjoy the Centre and to do so on an equitable basis. In fairness to the Finnish Society, let it be known that they have been staunch supporters of the Centre, having bought more shares in proportion to population than any other ethnic group. In the light of this, their recent action is hardly understandable. Is it that a new group are ruling the Finnish Society, who are not familiar with the original purposes of creating a Centre?

At times our own ethnic groups give our manager considerable grief. Why is this? Other ethnic groups — the Germans, the Ukrainians, and others find our facilities to their liking, and are lavish with their praise. They don't grumble about the rent; in fact they often offer a bonus in appreciation of services rendered. Perhaps our own ethnic groups should take stock of themselves.

In the past the ethnic groups have been so slack that they have not seen to it that they have proper representation on the Board of Directors. You have an opportunity to improve on February 16th at the Annual General Meeting. Seven new directors will be elected to complete the board of 15. If you have proper representation on the Board, you should be well informed at all times about your own home.

Or is it like it is in my own lodge — the Sons of Norway! The officers aren't concerned enough about the Centre to have a place on the agenda for a report from the Scandinavian Centre. Many a time I've sat prepared with a report, never to be asked.

I think it's time the ethnic groups, and I mean all of them — Danish, Icelandic, Finnish, Norwegian and Swedish — woke up to the tremendous possibilities and opportunities they now have. They must get active and use the Centre for all of the many cultural pursuits that are possible. The Scandinavian Community is looking to you and your officers for real leadership. Let's not forget that the Centre was built for you! You had better take advantage of it now, before it is too late. The manager can't wait for your bookings, when others are pressing for them. In fact, you are already too late, for the choice nights — Fridays and Saturdays — are booked for most of 1965 already.

What about rental of downstairs club rooms? The three larger ethnic groups have now such favourable rental arrangements that during many of the months of the year the cost to the group concerned will be NIL. What more can you expect? Would it not be only fair and proper that these larger groups rent the upstairs at least once a month?

Certainly it takes work, originality and planning of such functions in order to attract a minimum of 250 people. Are the officers of the various clubs equal to the challenge?

As for the Icelanders and the Finns, equitable rental arrangements must be worked out. The Finnish Society has proposed that they would like the use of the Nordic Room whenever it is available (with one Saturday a month guaranteed) at a guaranteed rental of $25.00 per month. It now remains to be seen if the other ethnic groups . . . Swedish and Norwegian . . . are agreeable, and whether the Icelanders feel that the Finnish proposal is acceptable to them.

MRS. INGA McWHIRTER COMPOSED "ALBERTA TRAIL"

Alberta Trail is played often on Station CFCW. I wrote about Mrs. McWhirter in the January issue. She is 80 years young and a distinguished pioneer. You will enjoy her latest hit, "Alberta Trail". It has cost her $1,400 to produce this record with orchestration by Agostini and vocalist Wally Koster. Won't you help her to get repaid for her efforts? Mail $1.50 to S. A. Sorenson, 600 McLeod Building, Edmonton, Alberta. You will be proud to have "Alberta Trail" in your record library.

Remember that one of the express purposes of the Scandinavian Centre is to honour Scandinavian Pioneers. Let us do so in a practical manner.

Cowboy's Rights

The eastern visitor was watching a group of cowboys playing poker. He whispered excitedly to one of the players. "Didn't you see that guy slip himself a card from the bottom of the pack?"

The cow-puncher looked up at the observer and calmly answered, "Well, it was his deal, wasn't it?"

Government Examiner — "How did you come to mark this man's paper 101 per cent? Don't you know that nothing can be more perfect than 100 per cent?"

New Assistant — "Yes, but this man answered one question we didn't ask."

Motherly Instinct

"Please keep an eye on Albert for me," his mother plaintively asked the college dean. "And see that he gets plenty of sleep and doesn't drink or run around too much."

The dean was patient and smiled. "Hasn't your son been away from home before?" he asked.

"Well, not really," replied the mother, "except for the two years he was in the Marines."

Scandinavian Hospital Project In Korea

Norway, Denmark and Sweden, with assistance from the Republic of Korea and the World Health Organization, will soon begin to re-build and expand the hospital at Taejon, some 100 miles south of Seoul. The new project is part of an agreement concluded a year ago, which affirmed that Scandinavia's medical assistance to Korea will be extended to September, 1968. Until now, this aid has concentrated on the National Medical Center at Seoul.

The latter hospital, opened in October, 1958, is jointly sponsored by UNKRA — the U. N. Korean Rehabilitation Agency, the Republic of Korea, and the three Scandinavian countries, Norway, Sweden and Denmark have so far contributed $8.5 million towards medical equipment and Scandinavian staff salaries. In the past five years, some 1,100 Korean physicians, nurses and technicians have received training at the 462 bed National Medical Center. The present staff includes 57 Scandinavians and 750 Koreans. Over the next four years, the hospital will be turned over to Korean management.

Funds for the Taejon hospital expansion project will be allocated from the $6.5 million budget at the disposal of the Scandinavian medical mission to Korea for the second 5-year assistance period. The World Health Organization will give $133,000 for equipment, with labor and other building expenses to be paid by the Republic of Korea.

International Trade Exhibition New Annual Event

Starting this year, northern Europe will have a spanking new display window where manufacturers from all over the world will be able to show their products to an international public.

According to the Scandinavian Airlines System News Bureau, the first annual Copenhagen Trade Fair will open October 15, 1965, in the new Bella-Centret exhibition halls in central Copenhagen. The fair will close October 24.

Smartly designed exhibition halls, covering more than 100,000 square feet on either side of an "elegant winter garden" foyer, will feature sections for home and household, fashion and apparel, gift and advertising items, hobby and recreation and office and transportation.

A novelty of the Copenhagen Trade Fair will be the introduction of "compact stand" sections, especially intended for those manufacturers who usually don't participate in trade fairs due to the time, work and expense normally involved.

A participant in the "compact stand" section will not have to be present at the Trade Fair. The exhibitor sends in his products and trained Trade Fair personnel will arrange the display and be on hand to serve prospective customers.

Special exhibitions during the 1965 fair will be a preview of Denmark in the year 1980 and a cavalcade of international industrial design.

Manufacturer Uses Contemporary Scandinavian Styling

Triplex hand-blown glassware from Sweden, Denmark and Germany, teakwood from Thailand and basic materials from Alberta are used by the Scandinavian Light Co. Ltd., Edmonton, in producing interior and exterior lighting fixtures and office and restaurant furniture. Incorporated in 1960, the company moved to its present premises at 14445 - 125 Avenue in September, 1944.

General Manager Per Arnt, an electro-mechanic, operated Arnt Electric in Edmonton for three years prior to setting up the Scandinavian Light Company. A desire to incorporate interior designing into his work prompted the change.

Incandescent lighting fixtures, both interior and exterior, are specially designed for churches, office buildings, hotels and other commercial buildings. The fixtures are made up of various combinations of glass, wood, and metal in contemporary styling. The furniture lines, in contemporary Scandinavian styling, were added this year and are used complementary to the fixtures.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

I have examined the balance sheet of the Scandinavian Centre Co-operative Association Ltd. as of December 31, 1964 and the related operating statements. My examination included such tests of accounting records and supporting evidence as was considered necessary in the circumstances. No accounting has been made for depreciation of the building or furniture, since both these assets were under continual improvement and addition throughout the period of active operation. A number of share subscriptions receivable should be written off, mainly of deceased subscribers, and a small percentage of the remaining accounts may prove uncollectible.

In my opinion, subject to the foregoing, the above balance sheet and related operating statements present fairly the financial position of the Association at December 31st, 1964 and the result of its operations for the year ended on that date, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the previous year and as shown by the books of the Association.

January 19, 1965. J. A. MOGER, R.I.A.

Vasa Lodge Skandia Meets January 2nd

The January 2nd meeting of Skandia Lodge No. 549 was held in the Nordic Room of the Scand-navian Centre and the attendance was good considering the severe cold weather.

Participation of lodge members in the 1965 Scandapades was discussed.

A vote was taken on the motion proposing change in date of lodge meetings. The motion was defeated . . . so members please note: the meetings will be held on the first Saturday of each month as usual, and in the Nordic Room of the Scandinavian Centre.

It was decided that Children's week at Vasa Park, Pigeon Lake should be discussed at the February meeting and mothers of children who wish to attend the Children's Week, are urged to come to the February meeting and take part in the discussion.

A sick committee for 1965 was elected of the following:

Mrs. Milda Backstrom, Phone 489-6819; Hansene Pierre, Hanna Sand, Willard Modin. Phone 489-0795, Magnus Pearson and Herman Nelson.

The ceremony of the installation of officers was conducted by the Past District Deputy Gust Johnson (who took the place of District Deputy Edwin Bergquist who was absent due to illness), assisted by the drill team. A highlight of the ceremony and a "first" in Vasa history, was the installation by District Master Margaret Eliasson of her son Glen Eliasson as chairman of Lodge Skandia.

Presentation of the 25 year pin was made to Mrs. Linnea Lodge and she was thanked for her devoted service to the Lodge. Harold Markstrom was presented with the Past President pin and Hansene Pierre, who officiated at this ceremony, expressed hopes that he would continue his faithful service to the lodge.

Sick members reported were: Mrs. Hilda Rydman, Mrs. Anna Johnson, Mrs. M. Eliasson, Otto Sund, A. Ogren, H. Markstrom and E. Bergquist. Gust Lundgren conveyed his appreciation through Willard Modin for the many cards he received during the holidays.

After the meeting lunch was provided by the following ladies: Mrs. E. Skarin, Mrs. A. Ogren, Mrs. Roy Ekman and Mrs. M. Pearson.

There followed a session of bridge and whist, and the winners were Eric Pierre at bridge and Willard Modin at whist.

The next meeting will be held at 7:00 p.m. February 6th. There will be dancing after the February and March meetings. Members are asked to pass the word around . . . REMEMBER . . . DANCING AFTER THE FEBRUARY AND MARCH MEETINGS.

reside in Ottawa had the opportunity to see a basketball game between Carleton University Ravens of Ottawa and the Icelandic National basketball team of Iceland. The Canadian team won 64-61 in a closely contested game. Before the game began the teams exchanged gifts and at the close gave three rousing cheer. Iceland's players wore sweaters with "Island" written on them.

Mrs. Ben Jeffery of Marshall, Saskatchewan spent the holiday season with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Finnestad of Sherwood Park.

Mrs. Jeffery who is a member of the Lloydminster Art Club was picked to represent her club at an Art Workshop, sponsored by the Saskatchewan Art Board, in Swift Current last fall. Of the eighteen people attending she was delighted to meet two other ladies of Icelandic descent. Mrs. Jeffery is the former Solveig Arnason of Central Saskatchewan. Recently Mrs. Jeffery had sufficient paintings to display them at a tea to help a young educator raise funds to benefit his class. Six of her paintings were sold. Mrs. Jeffery has also had her own musical compositions published. We wish this talented lady the best of luck in the future.

We extend deepest sympathy to Mrs. Harold (Ruth) Halldorson whose only brother Mr. Bruce Fetter passed away recently. Mr. Fetter was a druggist and resided in Wilkie, Saskatchewan.

Scandapades '65

The newly formed Icelandic Choir has been practising diligently for the "big night" on January 30th at the Jubilee Auditorium. The three songs the choir will sing are "Hvad er sva Glatt," "Vogguljod" - "Cradle Song" and "The Happy Wanderer."

Vogguljod was written by the beloved poet and novelist, Mr. Johann Magnus Bjarnson, music by Mr. Paul Bjarnson of Vancouver. All three men are sons of early Icelandic settlers to Western Canada.

Mr. Don Shaw will give a narration about the songs and Mrs. Ruth McNaughton will be on stage, with the choir, attired in her queen costume as "Maid of the Mountain."

Iceland On Third Avenue

Tomorrow, for one day only, the Third Avenue and 62nd Street sign will read Icelandic Way.

It's the city's way of saluting a new shop. Icelandic Arts and Crafts Inc., 1056 Third Avenue.

Twenty Icelandic manufacturing firms and one United States marketing group sponsor the shop, Iceland's first major effort to market its products here. Merchandise includes modern furniture, drapery fabrics, clay and lava ceramics, sheepskin rugs and wool carpets, hand-knit sweaters and accessories for children and adults, blankets, original paintings, and bric-a-brac.

Iceland's culture and work standards are Scandinavian-inspired. We had a good home industry before. Now, there's been a changeover to factory industry and we're trying to expand," explained Kristjan Frioriksson, managing director.

Frioriksson is co-proprietor of a department store in Reykjavik, Iceland's capital, and is associated with Ultima, Ltd., a woolen drapery firm. Icelanders prefer modern style, he said: "We couldn't sell an antique there."

Bereft of native woods Iceland imports furniture wood. Teak is featured at the shop. "We make the furniture to be used as is. Because of construction and upholstery, it's prepared for hard, everyday use. Icelandic wool, a specialty, is used in upholstered pieces."

Multi-purpose pieces will attract apartment dwellers.

There's a bench-footrestbar stool in which a sheepskin, or wool covered top can be placed in any of the three positions on a teak frame. A convertible sleeping couch, with teak protective arm trim, is upholstered in Icelandic wool.

Cardigan and pullover sweaters feature old Icelandic designs, some taken from museum patterns; each is a one-of-a-kind design, colors are mostly greys and browns. Souvenirs include whales-tooth items and spoons made of cow horn. Dolls wear colorful national costumes.

Icelandic architect Jon Haroldsson designed the showroom and its fixtures. "The main concept was to display the products a little differently and in keeping with the quality of the products. I wanted the shop to have the same strong characters as the coarse, rough sweaters and ceramics. Delicate dimensions wouldn't be right," he said.
